Our Mission:

To Create Community — As a religious community free of creed and dogma, we strive to create and nourish a joyful Beloved Community where all people are welcomed, inspired, respected, and enriched. We commit to accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and in our institutions.

To Transform Ourselves — We seek to learn, to grow, to explore our spirituality, and to nurture deep appreciation of our wondrous lives, of our multicultural backgrounds, and of the interdependent web of life of which we are part.

To Transform the World — We live our shared values through the spiritual discipline of love, putting our faith into practice by seeking opportunities to pursue justice, heal past injustice, provide service, and foster peace within our own community and in the wider world.
